PIANO TEACHER HUMOUR

"How expensive would it be to just skip practice and get right to perfect?"

"Would the violin be any easier than this?"

"I've prepared this PowerPoint presentation to explain why I didn't have time to practice this week."

"All right Billy, until your 'staccato' touch improves, we'll be having our piano lessons here at the stove."

"Before I heard you play it, that used to be my favorite piece."

Piece of Music is an independent music school based in London.

We offer fun and inspiring children's musicianship classes and 1:1 instrument lessons.
